Walter Rochelle, Well Known Young Man, Died at Portsmouth, N. H.

This community was shocked the latter part of last week to hear of the death of one of its young townsmen, Walter Rochelle, who went to Portsmouth, N. H., only a few weeks ago to work in the shipyards. He was taken sick with the prevailing malady and died Friday morning, his wife being summoned from here the evening before to Nashua, N. H., his former home. The funeral was held at Nashua, Sunday afternoon. His family and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Amelia Cordella, his brother, Albert Rochelle, and Alfred Hooker were in that city to attend the funeral. Mr. Rochelle was a young man about 25 years of age and had worked at the tinSmith and plumbing business here for several years, being a member of the firm of Richardson & Rochelle, until that firm dissolved a few weeks ago. Several years ago he married Miss Laura Lameri of this place and to that union one son was born. Mr. Rochelle was high in Woodmen circles and held an office at the time of his death. His family and hosts of friends have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Mrs. H. W. Drew was a guest of relatives in Burlington over Sunday and the first of the week.

Mrs. Lena Bailey was home from her work in St. Johnsbury over Sunday.

Be a Joy-Walker,

"Gets-It" for Corns

2 Drops, 2 Seconds—Corns Are Doomed!

When you almost die with your shoes on and corns make you almost walk sideways to get away from the pain, take a vacation for a minute or two and apply two or three drops of the world's magic and only genuine corn-

"My Corns Peel Clean Off, With 'Gets-It'!" peeler, "Gets-It." Then, and then only, will you be sure that your corn will loosen from your toe so that you can feel it right off gloriously easy with your fingers. Take no chances of continued pain and soreness—why use gross, irritating salves, plasters that shift and press into the "quick," razors and "dissolv-ers" that make corns bleed and also grow fast to the painful, easy, always sure "Gets-It." There's only one like it in the world—that's "Gets-It." Millions have tried and O. K. it for years. It never fails. Sold in Barre and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Cummings & Lewis—Adv.

EAST CALAIS

The local Red Cross has prepared a quilt to be sold at the grange fair. The quilt is a novelty, showing a vast amount of work. The design is a red cross and has over 700 names of townspeople, their friends, etc., on it. The center is a large cross, a roll of honor to Calais boys in service. The names of all the boys and one young lady now in service are on the center, also Col. H. S. Foster, U. S. A., retired. Colonel Foster has spent most of his life in the U. S. army, so it seemed very fitting that his name should be placed on Calais' roll of honor. Another, and perhaps the most wonderful thing about said quilt, is, in the very center is our war president's own autograph.
President Wilson kindly gave the Red Cross his autograph (written by himself) to be placed in the quilt. This autograph makes this quilt very valuable, but it will be someone's good luck to secure it for the small sum of 10 cents.
Some and see the quilt. No pains have been spared in making the quilt and it is beautifully quilted after the fashion of your great-grandmothers.

Miss Hester Prevost of New York City

Pearson, the past week.

200 pounds. Can you help a little? If croft.

turned to her home in Lyndon after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Balentine, for a week.

The Misses Carpenter of Cabot visited Mrs. Julia Morris recently.

John Coffin, one of our school boys, has given the Red Cross two nice roosters for the sale and Guy Bentley has given potatoes and Eli Charles has given money. The local Red Cross needs funds.

The branch does a vast amount of work and it hopes the income from the grange fair will help the finance question, that they may meet their quotas through the winter months and also provide all comforts for our boys as they are called to do their bit.

One thing lacking now to make the Calais fair and Red Cross donation sale a great big success. The great worry now is, will an auctioneer come across with his services for a couple of hours?
What shall we do? Have we a friend that can do this for us? The date, Saturday afternoon, Sept. 28.

Ralph B. Dwinell, John R. Wilson, Bancroft, Julia Wheelock, Clarabell
Brown, Irene Peck, Margaret Sanders

The latest news from Lieut. Franklin Dwinell, who is very sick with pneumonia, is a little more encouraging, but not quite what we want to hear.

ceive your subscriptions for the Barre Daily Times.
